

Play

Physical

When they play, children are likely to be physically active.

Creativity

When they play, children test things, make things, use their imagination, and express themselves.

Feelings

When they play, children express themselves. They often feel happy and come to terms with different experiences. This helps children feel less stressed.

Socialising

When they play, children make friends, argue, and make friends again, and then learn to share.